The Court orders that the motion for reconsideration is DENIED.

Petitioners-Appellants contend that this Court's opinion contains a factual inaccuracy concerning whether they requested a continuance in the trial court. While Petitioners-Appellants are technically correct, the inaccuracy is not outcome determinative. Petitioners-Appellants' argument concerning the continuance was both cursory and without citation to authority. Therefore, it was not properly presented and was abandoned on appeal. In re Petition by Wayne Co Treasurer for Foreclosure of Certain Lands for Unpaid Prop Taxes, 265 Mich App 285, 299; 698 NW2d 879 (2005); Peterson Novelties, Inc v City of Berkley, 259 Mich App 1, 14; 672 NW2d 351 (2003). Additionally, even if Petitioners-Appellants' argument had been properly presented to this Court, the lower court did not abuse its discretion in denying the motion for continuance on the day of trial.
